JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Jose Alberto Aceves, is hereby committed on Count 7 of the First Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 120 months, this term to run concurrently to the undischarged sentence imposed in Los Angeles County Superior Court, docket number PA087965.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of five years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Amended General Order 20-04.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
4. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.

Docket No.: CR 19-55-MWF

6. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs. The defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.

7. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the program by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.

8. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the Court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.

9. If the defendant becomes homeless during the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential reentry center (pre-release component) for a period of no more than 180 days, and the defendant shall observe the rules of that facility. The subsistence fee shall be waived.

10. The defendant shall submit his person and any property under defendant's control, including any residence, vehicle, paper, computer and other electronic communication or data storage devices and media, and effects, to suspicionless search and seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement or probation officer, with or without a warrant, and with or without cause; and if stopped or questioned by a law enforcement officer for any reason, defendant shall notify that officer that defendant is on federal supervised release and subject to search.

11. The defendant shall not associate with anyone known to the defendant to be a member of the Vineland Boys street gang and others known to the defendant to be participants in the Vineland Boys street gang's criminal activities, with the exception of the his family members. The defendant may not wear, display, use or possess any gang insignias, emblems, badges, buttons, caps, hats, jackets, shoes, or any other clothing that defendant knows evidence affiliation with the Vineland Boys street gang, and may not display any signs or gestures that he knows evidence affiliation with the Vineland Boys street gang.

12. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to the defendant to be a location where members of the Vineland Boys street gang meet or assemble.

The Court authorizes the Probation & Pretrial Services Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence Report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Service), for the purpose of the defendant's rehabilitation.

The defendant is advised of his right to appeal.

The Court grants the government's motion to dismiss Count 8 of the First Superseding Indictment and the underlying Indictment, as to this defendant only.

The Court recommends the Bureau of Prisons evaluate and consider the defendant for the Residential Drug Abuse Program "RDAP" Program. The Court further recommends the defendant be designated to a facility that offers the RDAP Program.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
